

The extra virgin gourmet.

SELEZIONI / COME UNA VOLTA

Research, passion, nature.

1945

The quality of our oil has deep roots.

Oil has a charm which arises from its direct relationship with the land, with the olive tree clinging to it, fruitful for centuries and with thousands of fruits that garnish its foliage, offered to the sun with exuberance, almost with joy.

Since the beginning – from our initial small mill, up to our modern and current industrial structure - we have always pursued the goodness of the product as our main purpose. In particular the highest level of its intrinsic characteristics as well as the constancy of the quality of its taste, represent our everlasting passion, and not merely commercial reasons.

Today, as in 1945, Arioli is appreciated by consumers who are looking for a full-fledged oil: genuine and tasty as well as delicate and harmonious at the same time.

Unmatched taste and health.

The result of a careful selection of extra virgin oils obtained from controlled olives of exceptional quality, the Arioli Selection line is suitable for use raw: excellent on salads, carpaccio and bruschetta. The light but persistent taste is ideal for enhancing flavors without covering them. All products are packaged in dark glass bottles, to best preserve the excellent organoleptic qualities, and anti-topping cap.
