

The Arioli family oil

IL SUCCOLIVA

Research, passion, nature.

1945

The quality of our oil has deep roots.

Oil has a charm which arises from its direct relationship with the land, with the olive tree clinging to it, fruitful for centuries and with thousands of fruits that garnish its foliage, offered to the sun with exuberance, almost with joy.

Since the beginning – from our initial small mill, up to our modern and current industrial structure - we have always pursued the goodness of the product as our main purpose. In particular the highest level of its intrinsic characteristics as well as the constancy of the quality of its taste, represent our everlasting passion, and not merely commercial reasons.

Today, as in 1945, Arioli is appreciated by consumers who are looking for a full-fledged oil: genuine and tasty as well as delicate and harmonious at the same time.

Il Succoliva 100% italian

Extra Vergin olive oil 100% italian: Organic, Classic and Fruity.

We have always worked with the same passion and competence as today, following all stages of production to guarantee the goodness of our product and all the flavor of our tradition.

Succoliva is an oil with unmistakable organoleptic characteristics: light and tasty, ideal for the preparation of sauces and sauces, excellent for use raw on grilled meats, freshly seared fish and seafood and salads. The Succoliva is packaged in a dark glass bottle to best preserve the excellent organoleptic qualities.
